The home was renovated just six months ago, using modern, quality materials. Improvements such as soundproofing have been made, ensuring greater tranquility and comfort inside, even during peak tourist seasons. One of the great advantages of this property is its location: it is located on a very central street, with the health center just behind it, supermarkets, pharmacies, public transportation, restaurants, and entertainment areas just a few meters away, making daily life easier without the need for a car. The apartment's layout is functional and comfortable. It has a spacious bedroom, equipped with a built-in wardrobe, offering a comfortable and well-organized space for relaxation.
